NEWS FROM IRELAND.

Clare.

The Tipperary Advocate, of August 22, says of O'Brien's Bridge Regatta:—This annual regatta upon the Upper Shannon, which is usually well attended, came off on Saturday, at O'Brien's Bridge, situate between Castleconnell and Killaloe. The banks of the river at both sides were thronged by well dressed persons of both sexes, as the weather, which had been very unpropitious throughout the week, took up fine, much to the gratification of all interested in the regatta as well as sight seers. There were five events. The first race, for £3, three colts; well matched, started, and after a hard contest, that worked by two men named Hayes and Elligott won, the Ellises, of O'Brien's Bridge making a good second. The second race, £2, three boats also went out, and after a good race, the Ellises, of Killaloe, came in first. The third race, £2, which occasioned a good deal of excitement, only one man being in each boat four started. The winner was James Malone, of Killaloe. The fourth race, £2, three boats were started, and after a hard struggle for the goal, that manned by Patrick Dwyer and John Ellis won.

Kerry.

A Killarney correspondent says:—A charge of church yard desecration is to be investigated at Castlegregory on the 18th inst. (August.) the sexton of the Protestant church of Killarney being charged with disturbing the remains of some Catholics buried in the village church yard. The desecration is said to have been committed in digging the foundation for a new vestry. It appears that the sexton set about the work in the absence of the rector of the parish, Rev. Abraham Isaac, and the parish priest of Castlegregory, the Rev. John O'Kane, and without giving any intimation of the parishioners interested in the grave yard that he would do so. The matter created much excitement, and Mr. R. C. Hickson, J. P., at once interfered, and stayed proceedings until the return of the rector and parish priest. Great excitement and indignation prevails amongst the Catholics inhabitants, who have now instituted legal proceedings against the sexton.

The Tralee Chronicle says:—Dr. O'Kane, the owner of some house property in Dingle, was decreed for the county cess of three of his tenants who were in arrear, and were too poor to have cess enforced from them. They held at small weekly rents. The defence was that the cess should be levied off the property of the tenants. The reply was that they had no property.

Dublin.

The Irish Builder says: As an instance of the increase of value of property in North George's street, we may mention that the house No. 36, lately the property of Mr. Valentine O'Brien O'Connor, has, during the past year, changed into Mr. Dunbar's hands at an increase of £200 on the price paid a few years ago for it by Mr. O'Connor.

The number of dogs registered in Ireland in the year 1867, under the Dogs' Regulation Act of 1865, was 256,751—namely, 15,005 in towns, and 249,843 in counties. The dog license duty received in the year amounted to £25,765, being 2s per dog, and after deducting the expense incurred in the administration of the act—namely, £6,041, there remained £19,634, surplus, which was paid to several towns and counties in due proportions.

Wicklow.

Richard Revael Drought, Esq., of Glencarrig House, Glenealy, has been appointed to the commission of the peace for the county of Wicklow, on the recommendation of the Right Hon. the Earl of Meath, Lord Lieutenant of the county.

Wexford.

A correspondent of the Wexford Independent, of a late date says:—Although a generally received opinion concerning Moore's birthplace points to Anngier street, Dublin, as the place, yet we find it stated in several places that at the Cornmarket, Wexford, his grandfather's house, he first saw the light. I may remark here, it was an old custom in Ireland, and one that still prevails in remote country districts where "civilization" has not shown its face, for the daughter about the time of the birth of her first child, to go home to her mother's house, where she remained until after the interesting event had occurred That Moore's mother acted in accord with this old custom, there seems very little doubt for I distinctly recollect having heard my grandmother, who was a Wexfordian, say, and several others, whose veracity I could not question, repeat the tale—"that they recollect to have seen Moore's mother carrying him about in her arms when a very small child; and when he became famous as a poet, they speak of him as "little Tom Codd's grandson that was born at the Ark," (the name of the house where his grandparents lived.)

Kilkenny.

In reference to the Kilkenny harvest fair, a correspondent under date of August 12, says: The streams of black cattle and sheep driven into the city last night, and the arrival of large numbers of determined men in "red choakers" plainly indicated business on a large scale at our fair to-day, when a brisk demand prevailed for young stock; grass lands have been much improved by the moisture, graziers are unable to compete successfully with shippers, hence the improved tone in this mart.

The Right Rev. Bishop of Ossory recently removed Rev. Richard Phelan, C. C., from Mooncoln to Gowran.

Kildare.

At a late Kilmeague petty sessions the Rev. S. G. Cotton, rector of Carragh, preferred charges against a man named Patrick M'Donagh and his wife, Catherine M'Donagh, for assaulting him and Mr. Cotton, also with breaking the windows of the glebe house and school house. During the examination in court, the male prisoner, who was committed for trial at next assizes, seized two ink bottles and flung them at complainant, cutting him in the mouth. The woman was discharged.

King's County

At a late meeting of the clergy of the several parishes in the King's County, held at Tullamore, it was unanimously resolved to support Sir Patrick O'Brien and Mr. David Sherlock, Q. C., the only candidates who have as yet addressed the electors for the Parliamentary representation of the county.

Queen's County.

There are seven candidates for the representation of the Queen's County. Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick, M. P., and Mr. Mason Jones have been selected as the Liberal candidates.—The latter, however, stands as an "independent" candidate, without the support of the clergy.

Waterford.

A publican named Daniel Moloney, residing near Lismore Chapel, while in Kanturk, on the 13th ult., go so drunk that he had to be put into his donkey cart to go home.—While on the road, he appears to have fallen asleep, and there being no side boards to the cart, his head came in contact with the wheel, bobbing on it all along the road, so that it was fearfully mutilated when the wretched man was found at his gate "quite insensible" on the following morning.

Antrim.

The Northern Whig states that there will be 8,500 new votes in the parliamentary constituency of Belfast on the occupation franchise alone. It is impossible, however, to say how many will be added by the lodger franchise.

The new Methodist College, Belfast, which has been built at an expense of £20,000, was formally opened on Wednesday, 19th ult.

Mr. Thomas McClure, a Liberal and a Presbyterian, has been selected as the Liberal candidate for Belfast.

The Northern Whig announces that a fiendish outrage was committed on a young lady, a native of Belfast, in a first-class railway carriage of the Ulster Railway between Portadown and Lisburn, on the morning of the 20th ult., by a fellow-passenger, who sought to violate her, but, failing, fled from the carriage, leaving her in a swoon. What made the matter more than usually brutal was the fact that the young lady was suffering from depression of spirits at the death of her brother, to whose funeral she was going, and this she had told the brute, who was her only fellow-traveller, and who had got her into conversation before attempting the assault.

Galway.

A correspondent says of the August fair of Loughrea: The Autumn fair of this town is, generally speaking, the smallest held during the year. It is commonly known as the "Gooseberry Fair." The supply of cattle to-day was considerably less than I have ever seen before at any season exhibited for sale on the green of Loughrea, and what is still worse there were very few buyers in attendance, and as a consequence little or no demand appeared in this class. In fact, from the scarcity of grass in the country in every direction, farmers and dealers that used hitherto invest largely at this season for the great annual October fair of Ballinasloe, feeling this year that the supply they have already on hand was more than sufficient for their pasturage, held back and made no appearance this morning. I saw some prime lots of dealers' cattle that in other years would be bought up early, driven home in the evening unsold.

Mayo.

William Rutledge, Esq., district coroner, held an inquest at Balla yesterday, on the body of Edward Connell, aged 72 years, who came to his death, it was alleged, under the following circumstances: On the fair day of Balla there were some horses stabled at the house of a man named James Golden, publican. It appeared that his son, Michael Golden, invited two young boys, named Forbes and Summers, to have a ride. They proceeded out on the Claremorris road, at great speed, and came in collision with the deceased and knocked him down, inflicting injuries from which he died. Apparently there were no external injuries from the effects of the fall on any part of the body. A verdict of manslaughter was returned against Thomas Summers and James Forbes. They were conveyed to prison to take their trial at the March assizes.

Sligo.

The Liberal electors of the borough of Sligo have unanimously adopted John Wolfe Flanigan, Esq., J. P., of Drundoe, in that county, as a candidate in the room of Sergeant Armstrong.

Leitrim.

It is said that two brothers named Michael and Patrick Bohan, recently forcibly administered an oath to Bridget Reilly, of Coriculla, in the parish of Cloone, whereby she bound herself and her husband to leave their house and place, they being caretakers for a man named Curran. The Bohans have been arrested on the affidavit of the woman.

Tipperary.

On the 20th ult., the Tipperary police arrested no less than seven persons on charge of being concerned in the late attack on Billy Scully at Ballycohey. Four of them were females—three being daughters of Dwyer, from whose house the shots were fired; the fourth, a young woman who had the double misfortune of being his niece and being on a visit, probably of condolence, with her cousins. Their names are Mary Dwyer, Johannah Dwyer and Bridget Dwyer, sisters, and Bridget Dwyer, their cousin. The men arrested were Edward Mullins, of Kilbenny; John Dwyer of Donohill; and Peter Birmingham. Dwyer and Mullins did not belong to the townland, and Birmingham is a servant to one of Scully's tenants. The prisoners being brought before a number local magistrates, were secretly questioned and then discharged, the female prisoners being obliged to give bail to appear when required.

A most destructive tornado swept over parts of the county of Tipperary on the night of the 12th ult., causing ravaging floods along the mountain road from Clogheen to Lismore. The bridge of Glengalla, upon the road from Newcastle to Clogheen, consisting of a single arch of 40 feet span, has been completely carried away, the breach being made about 80 feet in length by 14 feet deep; some of the stones of the bridge weighing fully half a ton, were carried to a distance of over a hundred yards. A new bridge must be built at Glengalla, which will cost from £400 to £500. Altogether, the damage done in the valley of the Tar and along the slopes of the mountain sides is very extensive.

The Clonmel Chronicle says:—About eight o'clock on the evening of Saturday (15th ult.,) several persons returning from the fair of Carrick-on-Suir [being a holiday also,) were startled on reaching near the wood of Coolnamuck, county Waterford, within one mile of Carrickbeg, to see a soldier of the artillery, and a farmer named James Kerrisey, in close conflict—each with his face almost covered with blood. Both were armed with knives. One named Guiry, more bold than the rest of the sight-seers, dashed between them to separate the combatants; he received severe wounds on the hands; others then went to his aid, and at last they succeeded in ending this life and death struggle. Both combatants were dangerously wounded—Kerrisey, who resides near Churchtown being perhaps fatally so from a severe stab under his ear. The soldier was committed to await the result.

The Advocate of a late date says:—The tide of emigration still continues to flow from the railway station of Thurles; scarcely a week passes by without a batch of well dressed young men and women, of a respectable appearance, leaving for a distant clime, which is to be the land of their adoption. In consequence of the large number that emigrated for the past few years, farmers' servants and laborers are very scarce, and wages high in all cases. Boys are getting from £9 to £11 a year, and girls £5 to £7. "Talk of America, and this is America at home."

THE WORSTED STOCKING.

"Father will have done with the great chimney to-night, won't he, mother?" said little Tom Howard, as he stood waiting for his father's breakfast which he carried to him at his work every morning.

"He said he hoped all the scaffolding would be down to-night," answered his mother, "that'll be a fine sight; for I never like the eading of those great chimneys, they are so risky. Thy father's to be the last up."

"Eh, then, but I'll go and see him, and help 'em give him a shout afore he comes down," said Tom.

"And then," continued his mother, "if all goes right we are to have a frolic to-morrow, and go into the country, and take our dinner, to spend all day amongst the woods."

"Hurrah," cried Tom, as he ran on to his father's place of work, with a can of milk in one hand, and some bread in the other.

His fond mother stood at the door watching him as he went merrily whistling down the street; and then she thought of the dear father he was going to, engaged in his dangerous work, and then her heart sought to protect and bless her treasures.

Tom with a light heart pursued his way to his father, and leaving him his breakfast, went to his own work, which was at some distance.

In the evening, on his way home, he went around to see how his father was getting on.

James Howard, the father and a number of other workmen, had been building one of those lofty chimneys which in our great manufacturing towns almost supply the place of architectual beauty. This chimney was one of the highest and most tapering that has ever been erected, and as Tom, shading his eyes from the slanting rays of the setting sun, looked up to the top in search of his father, his heart almost sank within him at the appaling sight. The scaffolding was almost down; the men at the bottom were removing the last beams and poles.. Tom's father stood alone on the top. He looked all around to see that everything was right; and then, waving his hat in the air, the men below answered him with a long, loud cheer, little Tom shouting as heartily as any of them. As their voices died away, however, they heard a very different sound—a cry of alarm and horror from above—

"The rope! the rope!"

The men looked around, and, coiled upon the ground, lay the rope, which before the scaffolding was removed, should have been passed over the top of the chimney for Tom's father to come down by! The scaffolding had been taken down without their remembering to take the rope up. There was a dead silence. They all knew that it was impossible to throw the rope up high enough or skillfully enough to reach the top of the chimney, or, if it could, it would hardly have been safe. They stood in silent dismay, unable to give any help, or think of any means of safety

And Tom's father! He walked around and around the circle on the dizzy hight, seeming every moment to grow more fearful, and the solid earth farther and farther from him. In the sudden panic he lost his presence of mind and his senses almost failed him. He shut his eyes; he felt as if the next moment he would be dashed to pieces on the ground below.

The day had passed as industriously and as swiftly as usual with Tom's mother at home. She was always busily employed for her husband and children in some way or other; and to-day she had been harder at work than usual, getting ready for the holiday to-morrow. She had just finished all her preparations, and her thoughs were silently thanking God for her happy home, and for all the blessings of life, when Tom ran in; his face was as white as ashes, and he could hardly get his words out.

"Mother, mother! he canna get down!" said Tom.

"Who, lad?—thy father?" said his mother.

"They've forgotten to leave him the rope," answered Tom, still scarcely able to speak.

His mother started up, horror struck, stood for a moment as if paralized, pressing her hands to her face as if to shut out the terrible picture, and breathing a prayer to God for help, she rushed out of the house.

When she reached the place where her husband was at work, a crowd had collected at the foot of the chimney, and stood there quite helpless, gazing up with faces full of hooror.

"He says he'll throw himself down?" exclaimed they, as Mrs. Howard came up. "He's going to throw himself down!"

"Thee munna do that, lad!" said a clear hopeful voice; "the munna do that. Wait a bit. Tak' off thy stocking, lad, unravel it, and let down the end with a bit of mortar. Dost hear me, Jem?"

The man made a sign of assent, for it seemed as if he could not speak, and, taking off his worsted stocking, unraveled the worsted row after row. The people stood around with breathless suspense, wondering what Tom's mother could be thinking about, and why she sent in such haste for the carpenter's large ball of twine.

"Let down one end of the thread with a bit of stone, and keep fast hold of the other," cried she to her husband.

The little thread came waving down the chimney, blown hither and thither by the wind; but at last it reached the out-stretched hands that were waiting for it. Tom held the ball of string while his mother tied one end of it to the worsted thread.

"Now pull it up slowly," cried she to her husband; and she gently unwound the string as the worsted drew it up slowly. It stopped; the string had reached the husband.

"Now hold the string fast and pull it up," cried she, and the string grew heavy and hard to pull, for Tom and his mother had fastened the thick rope to it. They watched it gradually and slowly uncoil from the ground as the string drew higher.

There was but one coil left, it had reached the top.

"Thank God! Thank God!" exclaimed the wife.

She hid her face in her hands in silent prayer, tremblingly rejoiced. The iron to which it should be fastened was all right. But would her husband be able to take advantage of it? Would not the terror of the past hour have so unnerved him as to prevent him from taking the necessary measures for his safety?—She did not know the magic influence which a few words had exercised over him. She did not know the strength that the sound of her voice, so calm and steadfast, had filled him with; as if the thread which had conveyed to him the rope of life once more, had conveyed to him some portion of that faith in God which nothing ever destroyed or shook in her true heart. She did not know that as she waited the words came over him—

"Why art thou cast down, O my soul, and why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God."

She lifted up her heart to God for hope and strength. She could do nothing more for her husband; and her heart turned to God, and she rested on him as on a rock.

"He's safe, mother! he's safe!" cried little Tom.

"Thou'st saved me, Mary," said her husband, folding her in his arms. "But what ails thee? Thou seemest to be more sorry than glad about it."

But Mary could not speak; and if the strong arm of her husband had not held her up, she would have fallen to the ground; the strong joy after such great fear had overcome her.

"Tom," said his father, "let thy mother rest upon thy shoulder, and we will take her home."

And in their happy home they poured forth their thanks to God for His great goodness; and their happy life together felt dearer and holier for the peril it had been in, and for the nearness the danger had brought them unto God. And the holiday next day—was it not indeed a thanks giving day?

MOKELUMNE HILL, September 30. This afternoon, between 3 and 4 o'clock, as E. Said, Superintendent of the Petticoat mine at Railroad, accompanied by Messrs. Meek and Keese, was on the road to this place with the bullion from the mine, four masked armed men stepped out from a small pine thicket, and without any intimation, they fired, instantly killing Said. Meek jumped out and ran, but was caught and robbed of some sixty dollars. When the gun was fired the horses started to run, and Keese caught the lines, whipped up the team, and came on to this place with the body of Said. The treasure was not taken. Said was shot in the mouth, the charge coming out behind the left ear. The whole county is in pursuit of the murderers.

A curious case came before a New York Court not long ago. A Dr. Sherrer sued Mr. and Mrs. Arthur for a trespass, the trespass being that Mrs. A. had a miscarriage in the plaintiff's office; the plaintiff further alleging that this miscarriage was in consequence of an abortion. The defendants deny the resort to malpractice, and counter-claim $5,000 for damages sustained by the lady by the refusal of the doctor to render his professional services.

What strange creatures girls are! Offer one of them good wages to work for you, and ten chances to one if the old woman can spare any of her girls; but just propose matrimony, and see if they d'nt jump at the chance of working a whole lifetime for their victuals and clothes.

AN INDIAN TRAGEDY.

The following story, from a Milwaukee paper, reads like a romance of Cooper's, but is said to be a record of facts gathered by a gent'eman who is collecting material for a history of the Upper Mississippi Valley:

A party of thirty Winnebagoes came down from the late scalp dance at which the tribe was gathered on Trempeleau river, in the north, and encamped on French's Island, in the Mississippi river, just above the St. Paul railroad depot at La Crosse.

The band was under the control of a well-known chief of the Winnebagoes, named Wan-kee-se-hoong-er-er, or Snake Chief, who had two wives, Si-es-ka and He-nee-kee. Si-es ka was about thirty years of age, graceful in appearance, with a pleasant look and an interesting face. With whites she was a favorite, while with the Winnebagoes she was looked upon very kindly—indeed, adored with all the ardor of Indian fervor. Snake Chief was a noted warrior, and was very much liked by his tribe. He was a powerful and brawny fellow, and when sober was peaceful and good natured; when drank, he was ugly and disagreeable. One of his favorite pastimes, when in this condition, was beating his wives.

On Friday last, Snake Chief returned to his wigwam drunk. Si-es-ka was in the wigwam, and the chief commenced beating her over the head and shoulders. Driven to desperation, and unable longer to stand his brutality, she drew her knife and stabbed the chief twice, the blade penetrating the heart of the warrior, who died instantly while the first notes of the death-song were on his lips. The affair at once created a sensation among the Winnebagoes, who did not know how to act. They loved their chief, and they loved their chieftain's wife. It is a well known regulation among the Indians that when a man is slain, a relative must avenge his death by taking the life of the slayer. Si-es ka knew this.—Some of the Winnebagoes urged her to fly, but she would not.

With true Indian resignation she folded her blanket about her and sat down in her wigwam facing the door, and awaited her avenger. It was believed by many that He-nee-kee, the younger and favorite wife, would be the avenger, but she seems to have had no such intention. She mourned the loss of her husband, but took no steps further than to send a runner up the Trempeleau, where the Chief's relatives were, to notify them of what had taken place. Meanwhile Si-es-ka sat in her cabin chanting the death-song, stoically indifferent to what was going on about her, and only talking when questions were asked her.

On Sunday morning an Indian from Trempeleau made his appearance in camp. He was known as Chan-no-ne-ga, and had evidently travelled without halting since he had learned of the death of the Snake Chief.—Entering the camp, without a word, he walked solemnly to the place where the body of Snake Chief lay, took a long look at it, and then turned sullenly away. Nobody spoke to him, yet all watched with interest his movements. Deliberately loading his gun with buckshot, he uninterruptedly walked to the wigwam where Si-es-ka sat, she having remained there since the murder, took one look at the woman, who loudly chanted the death-song. Not a muscle of the woman's face moved to denote that she labored under any excitement, but she sat there quietly and calmly, her eyes moving upward and her voice, as the uncouth song escaped her lips, steady and firm.—She knew the avenger was before her—that in another moment her spirit would leave the frail tenement of clay and seek that of the Chief who had gone before; yet no look or sign indicated that she feared her fate.—Such is Indian stoicism and indifference.

The eyes of the two did not meet. In the face of Chan-no-ne-ga there was a look of mingled hate and revenge. Deliberately he raised his musket to his shoulder—deliberately he aimed it at the woman's head—coolly he fired. The report rang out through the Indian camp—the smoke cleared away—Si-es-ka still sat there—her blanket about her—her arms folded—but one side of her head was blown completely away—her spirit had fled, and the code of Indian justice was satisfied—Wau-kee-se-longer-er was avenged.

The murderer, with just a look to satisfy him that his work had been well done, shouldered his musket and walked deliberately out of the camp. Nobody spoke to him—nobody offered any interference, and stepping into his canoe he pulled to the shore, and disappeared in the woods, leaving the Winnebagoes stupified.

Land disputes and fights are going forward in Alaska.

Beauty.—Nothing adds more to beauty than clean white teeth, healthy, rosy gums, and a sweet breath; on the contrary, the most beautiful face and rosy lips become repulsive, if when the latter are opened they show the spectacle of neglected teeth. The continued use of any condiments, or articles containing any acid, is injurious. The safest and most pleasant preparation is Dr. Spencer's Fragrant Sapione, which makes the teeth beautifully white, and the breath sweet ar roses.

Beautiful teeth are an ornament equally attractive to both sexes, and distinguishes the elegant from the slovenly lady or gentleman; but it is more especially to woman that fine teeth are necensary, as she must captive, before she enslaves the heart. The daily use of Dr. Spencer's Fragrant Sapoine, will prove as effectual, as well as the most pleasant toilet article for beautifying and preserving the teeth.

The effect of Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, even taken for its cathartic properties, are very different from those of any other medicine prepared specifically for that purpose.

There is no nausea or disturbance of the stomach, and instead of causing any sense of languor, or debility, it seems rather to invigorate the whole system, and excite the keenest appetite.

Business Men, worn by care and sedentary habits, often suffer from constipation of the bowels, until the evil consequences of such a a condition are realized in extaeme debility, nervousness and prostration of the vital energies of the system; and it be safely asserted that a majority of the female sex are little better than invalids, from the same cause; but by simply using Dr. Walker's Vegetable Vinegar Bitters, this natural aperient and tonic brings back the vigor and buoyancy of health.

Pure Food Necessary to Health.

If we consider the complex mechanism of the human body, and the marvelous chemistry of the digestive organs, we cannot fail to perceive the necessity for using pure food to maintain the body and mind in a healthy condition. This is a subject deserving more attention from the public than it receives. Thousands of persons purchase their food where it can be obtained at the lowest price. In so essential a matter as the food we eat, lowness of price, is not in every case, an evidence of cheapness. Quality should also be taken into consideration. Not a few of the ailments that afflict both adults and children owe their origin to the use of impure food.

Many articles which comprise the stock of a grocery store, are spoiled if kept too long, or if exposed to the air, others are only wholesome while fresh. Storekeepers doing only a limited business, are often compelled to keep many articles till they become unfit for food, when they sell them "cheap" to get rid of them. Those who value health more then a few dimes, will prefer to pay a fair price for pure, fresh wholesome articles. Those who wish to be obtain such should send their orders to A. Sbarboro, 520 Clay street, San Francisco, where nothing but fresh goods are ever permitted to leave to the Store.

THE SITUATION.

We copy the following extracts on the political "situation" from the New York Irish People of Sept. 19. The "People" is the avowed, recognized, and accepted organ of the Savage wing of the Fenian organization, Mr. John O'Mahony, one of the founders of Fenianism in the United States, is supposed to be one of its editors. It says:

Could anything be more inconsistent in this advanced age than the custom of applying the term renegade and turncoat to the man who chooses to break away from the usages of the party which claims his adhesion, for no other reason under the sun than because it has been customary with his people to be led that way. It is a well known fact that the great majority of the Irish people in this country have voted with the Democratic party in the past, and no one can pretend to dispute their right to act as they please in the matter; but for the life of us we cannot understand why it is that an Irishman may not vote the Republican or any other ticket without incurring the risk of being styled a "renegade Irishman."

We deeply sympathise with you, beloved brother. But why don't you organize Grant and Colfax Hibernia Clubs in your great city, same as we do out here? Six years ago, in this great new country—just about the time the IRISH NEWS was started—Republican Irishmen were few and far between; but now they are as thick out here, as bees upon clover tops, and will vote for Grant and Colfax by thousands, no one daring to hinder or make them afraid, —all owing to our example, of course. We have also gained the utmost confidence and respect of those opposed to us, politically. We associate with them daily, we drink with them, we laugh and joke with them, we eat and sleep with them. They call us good and clever, and that they cannot get along without us—and they are right. We can count them upon our subscription lists by the thousands. They are our best supporters, for they pay up like men what they owe us. If one or two of the more hot-headed ones will, occasionally, throw up our paper in their tantrims, they are sure to send for it again before the sun goes down upon their wrath. They cannot get along without us, and we are sure that we cannot get along without them. When we arrive at marrying age—which will be long before next leap-year, we shall "propose" to a fair daughter of Democracy, and if she doesn't give us the mitten, you will have a union—a fusion—that will have a most virtuously exhilirating effect upon both parties—if not an ultimate consolidation. Thiggin thu eshin? Our cotemporary proceeds in his complaint:

We have been constrained to make the above remarks from having our attention called to a paragraph in a Brooklyn paper in which the epithet "renegade," prefixed by the word Irish, is applyed to one of the most gallant officers of the glorious old Irish Brigade. The record of this officer during the heroic civil war is second to none. He was always in the field at the head of his men, and the honorable scars which he now bears attest the fact that he feared neither death nor danger. At the close of the war this brave man, having acquired a thorough knowledge of the "glorious art," turned his eye toward his own dear land, for the purpose of assisting in the regeneration thereof. That movement failed for the time; and many gallant soldiers were incarcerated in English prisons under the Habeas Corpus Suspension Act. This "Irish renegade," who was waiting there to take the field, was among the number. After an imprisonment of many months he was released, and returned to this country, with the determination of going back again when the chance offered.

On the other hand, his assailant, editor of the Brooklyn Eagle, though an Irishman born, has been one of the most inveterate and persistent opponents of the cause of Ireland. Week after week his journel teemed with vituperation of the men who striving to wrest their native land from English rule. Sneers and jeers were to be found in every column; while not one word of encouragement ever appeared, no ray of hope ever shed forth to illumine the dreary path to Irish nationality.

Irishmen it is high time that we should reason together on questions of this kind. It is high time that we should shake off the horrible moral bondage under which we have been living so long. Tell the world that you are free agents of your own suffrages, and that henceforth you will be guided by justice, truth and reason, and not by senseless shibboleths and blatant harangues.

If the Irish people in America, in their struggle for Irish nantionality, desire the aid of the American people, then the Irish people in America should support the American people in their struggles to preserve American nationality. A good thing should work both ways. And the surest way that Irishmen can manifest this disposition at the present time is, to vote for the man who, in the hands of Providence, was instrumental in preserving this great nation from being torn to pieces—a home for them and for their children forever—that is ULYSES S. GRANT.

From the Dublin Irishman of June 20.

SCHUYLER COLFAX.

The following is copied from the Dublin Irishman of June 20, 1868. The "Irishman" is a truly national paper, loved by every Irisman who seeks the elevation of his native country from thraldom to national independence; is an old paper with young ideas; circulates on both sides of the Atlantic. Its editor, Mr. RichardPigott, for sympathising with the Manchester martyrs—Larkin, O'Brien, and Gould—incurred the displeasure of the British Government, was convicted and imprisoned therefor. Knowing that Mr. Colfax will add his great influence to help on to a successful termination the great cause of Irish nationality, Mr. Pigott rejoices at Mr. Colfax's nomination to one of the highest offices in the gift of the people of the greatest Republic the world ever knew. He says:

A SIGNIFICANT FACT.

How many months ago is it since the Fenians held a picnic at Chicago? It was held, we believe, during the sunny days of last year. It was a remarkable event in many ways. For one thing in especial was it noteworthy, and that was the presence of many eminent Americans. One of them was the Governor of a State, the other was SCHUYLER COLFAX. If we err not he was then President of the Senate, [Speaker of House Representatives—ED. NEWS.] a position conferred on men whom the people trust and who, in general, represent the feelings and principles of a great majority of the American people. SCHUYLER COLFAX made an eloquent speech on that occasion. What did he say? Did he warn the Fenians to give up their cause as hopeless, to abandon their organization as criminal, to avoid as horrible an attack on territory over which the banner of Britain waves? To be honest, it must be admitted he did nothing of the sort; to be frank, it must be confessed he did the direct contrary. Would you wish to have in short summary the gist of his speech? It may be condensed into two lines. Take it thus:

"England has grievously wronged us—tried hard to rend us assunder
—fitted out vessels to plunder us:
go at her, my boys, and my heart
shall be with you whenever you march."

Now, a few days ago, there was another meeting at Chicago—a great convention, not of Fenians, but of leading Americans politicians. They belonged to the dominant party in the Union. They met to nominate the men who shall take their places as President and Vice President of the great half continent of the New World. Their candidate for the presidency is, as we expected, General GRANT; but who is their candidate for the next most important position, for the Vice-Presidency?—who the possible President of this Great Republic—the most important realm in the world? SCHUYLER COLFAX is the man! And in his letter of acceptance addressed to the Convention of Chicago, he gives expression of his political views—and clearly he is not a man that changes his opinions as the vane on the housetop alters its position. "I rejoice," writes this future Vice President of America, "To find in your platform (programme) the frank and fearless avowal that naturalized citizens must be protected abroad at every hazard, as though they were native-born. Our whole people are foreigners or descendants of foreigners; our fathers established by arms their right to be called a nation. It remains for us to establish the right to welcome to these shores all who are willing to become American citizens. Perpetual allegiance as claimed at road, is only another name for perpetual bondage, and would make all slaves to the soil where they first saw the light. Our national cemeteries prove how faithfully those oaths of fidelity to their adopted land have been sealed in the life-blood of thousands upon thousands. Should we not then be faithless to the dead if we did not protect their living brethren in the full enjoyment of that nationality for which side by side with the native-born, our soldiers of foreign birth laid down their lives." This, he writes the Convention, he regards as a debt of gratitude due to brave men; and he avows himself in communion with them, also, in the sympathy of the party of liberty throughout the world.

On Friday morning, at half-past one o'clock, the Franklin House, corner of Sansome street and Broadway, San Francisco, took fire, and was entirely consumed. Two persons, named Rogers and Ryan, one a servant in the house, the other a lodger, perished in the flames.

A movement is on foot among the foreign population of the United states to purchase and furnish a house for ex-Governor Henry A. Wise, of Virginia, in appreciation of his opposition to Know-Nothingism. Richmond contributes $1,000.

The Chicago Journal of September 22st says: Catholic circles in Chicago are stirred to their greatest depths—stirred as they have never been before. The excitement that followed Bishop Duggan's fulmination against the Fenians was oil on the troubled waters in comparison with that produced by the removal of the Rev. Dr. Dunne and Rev. Father Boles from the churches of St. Patrick and Holy Name, respectively. That the feeling has not reached its culminating point is made evident by the angry manner in which the removals are discussed in all quarters of the city among the Catholics. Several months ago a number of the Catholic clergymen of Chicago, including Rev. Dr. Dunne, Rev. Father Roles, Dr. McMullen, and Dr. McGovern, united in a letter to the Pope, complaining of mismanagement of the temporal affairs of the diocese, by Bishop Duggan. Since that time Bishop Duggan has been to Rome, where he was undoubtedly made acquainted with the contents of the letter of complaint.—Bishop Duggan has but recently returned, and one of his first acts is the removal of Rev. Dr. Dunne and Rev. Father Roles, two of the authors of the letter, from their parishes. How soon the others will meet the same fate remains to be seen. That Bishop Duggan's action will be final, and that it receives the full sanction of the highest Romish authority may be inferred from the fact that it follows closely upon his conference therewith. The removal of Rev. Dr. Dunne and Rev. Father Roles took effect yesterday, and was publicly announced to their parishoners.

A western editor advertising for clubs for his paper, received a dozen or more hickory shillelahs from friends in the backwoods. He stored them in his office, and found occasional employment for them when exasperated subscribers visited him.

The fight between Bush, the Mountain Boy, and Billy Dwyer, will take place on some point on the sacramento River on the 20th Oct. Boats will leave san Francisco and sacramento, and meet at the selectd ground, where the representative of the muscle of each city will meet and shake hands.

It is said that the old mineral spring at Ballston, N. Y., has been rediscovered, and a company will undertake to resuscitate the fashionable reputation of the village. Ballston was once far more fashionable than saratoga—indeed, it was a smart town before saratoga was thought of.

The exports from San Francisco during the past fifteen days amount to $1,358,588. Of this amount $316,783 went to Liverpool; $96,061 to Irish ports; over $100,000 to Australian ports; $100,000 to South American ports; $75,000 to Honolulu. The great bulk, however, was sent to New York.

A telegram from Oswego, N. Y., Oct. 5th, says: The propeller Perseverence took fire at 2 o'clock this morning, 15 miles from Putneyville, and burned to the water's edge.—Nineteen persons were on board, 14 of whom, including the captain, perished in the flames, which spread so rapidly that all the boats but one were speedily enveloped with fire.

A child of J. M. Ward, at Umatilla, Oregon, about fifteen or eighteen months old, was found hanging in the upper crack of a board fence, a few days since. It had climbed up and put its head through the crack, when its feet slipped and left it hanging in the manner described. When found, life was quite extinct.

A party of six men crossed the bridge over the Middle Fork, near Myer's store, and some three hours later made a raid on Chinatown, on Nelson Creek, Plumas county. Tying the Johns together by their tails, they searched the camp and got about $300. They then started up the creek, and finding another camp of Chinamen, they robbed them of about $100.

A woman named Bridget Dunkly, Principal of Public School No. 9 of Brooklyn, N. Y., was arrested on the 23d ult. for brutally and inhumanly beating a little scholar—a girl of less than eight years—to such a horrible degree that the little sufferer died in convulsions a few hours hours after.

Chicago sent forward to the East last year, 48,000,000 bushels of grain, of which ninety-one per cent. went by water, and nine per cent. by rail. Of the millions of bushels of corn which were forwarded east from the same point, ninety-nine per cent. went by water. And all this in face of the four and one-half months of suspension of navigation during the season.

Gen. Sherman has written to the authorities for more troops to aid in subjugating the Indians. He is said to complain bitterly of delays in sending reinforcements, and to state that unless he is promptly furnished with the troops he desires, nothing can prevent a wide-spread disastrous conflict with the discontented tribes.

It is mentioned as a remarkable fact that the star of the order of St. Patrick, belonging to Lord Farnham, which passed through the fiery ordeal of the fire on the railroad in Wales, was the only article found almost intact. In truth it was not even disfigured. His lordship's watch, by which his presence in the train was first known, was nearly destroyed, and so were nearly all the watches found.

Frank Leslie's paper, in speaking of Grant, after showing who Seymour is, says: "We have nothing to say as regard to General Grant. All the world knows what he is. To paraphrase the epitaph on Sir Christopher Wren, in St. Paul's Cathedral, "Would you see his monument look around you!" so we say of Grant. "Would you know what he is," read the brightest pages of your country's history!"

The betting on the Presidential election in New York city is subject to considerable fluctuation. Immediately after the nomination of Seymour the betting was two on Grant to one on Seymour. It afterwards changed to one hundred and twenty on Grant to eighty on Seymour, which is the best show Seymour has had. Now, says the New York Sun, Seymour stock has gone back dreadfully in the betting market, and the quotations at present stand three on Grant to one on Seymour.

A New Orleans dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune, dated October 5th, states that three men undertook to chastise Mr. Bentley in the presence of his school. Bentley's friends interfered, when he persuaded them to go away. He then had a warrant issued for the arrest of his assailants.—Before the warrant was executed a band of armed men commenced the slaughtering of negroes. The New Orleans Bulletin states that one hundred negroes were killed and wounded. The office of the Progress newspaper was gutted and its type and presses thrown into the streets. Mr. Durant, one of the editors, was then lynched.

Cholera, famine and typhus fever are raging with dreadful violence, in the Barbary States, and especially in Algeria and Morocco; for instance, at Mazagran, a French man-of-war steamer appeared in the roads and half the European population sought refuge on board. Eight hundred out of 4,000 inhabitants of Cassablurea had died when our last intelligence from that town reached us. The whole atmosphere is said to be poisoned by the miasma from the graves, which are too shallow.

On the 21st ult., a little girl, three years old, of Mr. Patton, living on Bear Creek, three miles west of the Long Tom, in Lane county, Oregon, was killed by a cougar. The child was playing in the yard, and within ten feet of the door of the dwelling, when the cougar sprang upon it from the bushes, which grow near the house. The mother seeing the beast drag her child towards the timber, seized a stick and started in pursuit. She attacked the cougar with such resolution that it dropped its burden and the heroic woman taking the lifeless body under one arm and her only remaining child under the other, made her way to a neighbor's, a mile and a half distant. Mr. Patton was absent from home at the time.

The Atchison (Kansas) Patriot is responsible for the following: We are informed by J. P. Brown, of the firm of Brown & Bier, contractors for building the large Catholic church in this city, that every brick in this mammoth building contains a quantity of fine gold. This fine building probably contains more brick than any block in the city. For a long time the workmen and bricklayers have noticed small specks in the bricks, resembling gold, but which, of course, they little thought was in reality the precious metal. Yesterday Mr. Hempler, the architect, having pulverized several of the bricks, ascertained beyond a doubt, by the aid of chemicals, that they really contained gold. The bricks were manufactured at the kilns just below G. W. Gillespie & Co.'s saw-mill, and it is supposed that gold may be found in quantities on the bluff, just west of the brick kiln.

From the Galena Gazette we learn that Gen. Grant, in company with L. S. Felt of Galena, has been hunting chickens in Grant county, Wis., and visiting a few old friends, whose acquaintance he made while in the leather trade before the war. During their absence they visited Lancaster, Potosi and Platteville, and the General was everywhere received with the greatest cordiality and the most distinguished marks of honor. He was present at the dedication of the Normal School building at Platteville, and was the observed of all observers. The people insisted that he should sit upon the stage, where he could be seen, and it was impossible to resist the demand. As he walked up to the stand three rousing cheers were given for the Great Captain, and the utmost excitement prevailed throughout the hall. The General was never more healthy and vigorous than since his stay in Galena. The rest from care and mental labor, and an occasional buggy ride through the country, have driven from his brow the slightly care-worn appearance which was there when he same to Galena.

The Union Pacific Railroad is now completed to Green River, about 250 miles east of the northern end of Salt Lake. The Central Pacific is completed about 50 miles beyond Winnemucca, or to a point about 277 miles west of the north end of Salt Lake. Thus the Union Pacific is 27 miles nearer to the head of the Lake than the California Company, and the gap between the termini of the two roads is 527 miles. The grading forces of both companies are working over a greater portion of this interval, and the entire road-bed may be ready in three months. The Green River country will not offer obstacles sufficient to retard the progress of the Union Pacific. The stream itself is not so difficult to cross as it has been represented, and much of the grading on this side is already done. If the Central Pacific, with a winter in the Sierra near at hand and no considerable amount of material over the mountains, shall prove itself able to reach to reach Salt Lake first, it will have accomplished a remarkable feat. It has made a splendid race thus far, without detriment to the permanent value of its road, and Californians wish it good speed.

Louth.

The Dundalk Democrat, of the 22d ult., says: Our flax market commenced on Monday last, and was attended with the greatest success. The growers of flax and several proprietors of scutch-mills warmly cooperate with the promoters, and the result was far beyond what the most sanguine expected. A large number of carts were ranged along the east side of Park street, and the quantity of flax exhibited could not have been less than fifteen or sixteen tons. This was very gratifying, but what gave most satisfaction was, that the flax was well scuthed, and presented a most creditable appearance. The buyers were numerous.

A monument is about being erected to the memory of the late Thomas W. Fligat, Esq., of Tullykeel, who is said to have been one of the best agents in the county Louth.

GRAND RE-OPENING OF THE ANATOMICAL MUSEUM and GALLERY of Natural History and Science, Eureka Theatre, Montgomery street. On Monday, 18th March, this truly elaborate and magnificent collection, of all that is strange, wonderful and curious in Science, Natural History, and Art, was thrown open to the public. Extensive Embellishments have been made. The additions will include an immense collection in Botany, Ichthyology and Entomology. Comparative Floral and Botanical Anatomy will be largely illustrated, and form a leading feature of the institution. Every exertion has been used to render this superb collection the most instructive, agreeable, and useful in the world. Insect and animal life will be beautifully displayed, and the celebrated Du Chaillu Gorilla which was exhibited alive in Paris, has been added to the already vast collection of human and comparative Anatomy. The Museum is open daily from 9 a m to 5, and from 7 to 9 p m. Sunday from 5 to 10. ap1

IRELAND.

The stars now glimmer, the sun is sinking
To his golden bed in the waveless sea—
To-night I am standing here and thinking,
With heavy bosom, my land of thee.
The vine above me is richly twining,
And the jasmine perfumes the evening air;
Oh, foolish heart, why art thou pining
To leave these shores for a land less fair?

Does that sun you long for, in noontime glowing,
Gild the drooping ear of the golden grain,
With his full rich light to the glad eye showing
How blest by God is the happy plain,
Where plenty dwells, and a banner streaming
Floats proudly over a nation free;
Yet, foolish heart, why are thou dreaming
Of a land of slaves beyond the sea?

Has that land of woe flung a spell around thee,
Unbroken ever by joy or pain,
And to her shores forever bound thee,
With a bond of love, with a magic chain,
That, though smiling fields and eternal summer,
Woo thee to rest in the home of the free,
You turn coldly, with sad glance, from her,
And mnamur, Ireland my heart's in thee.
Have those grand old legends, by mothers chanted
To their sleeping babes in that shrouded land;
Have those sombre lakes, by chieftains haunted,
Woven around thee some fairy band
That, when mirth is loudest and wine is streaming
From the goblet, grasped in each hand,
With hot cheeks flushed, and with proud eye gleaming,
Quaffs drink to Ireland, our native land?

We are under many obligations to Messrs. Hudson & Menet, newspaper advertising agents, No. 41 Park Row, New York, for sending us advertisements for our paper; and, the beauty of it is, they pay up to the handle for them, and in advance. We are also happy to see that the advertising business done by this firm is largely increasing on this coast, where they seem to have the sole monopoly and control. They seem to be the sole agents for Eastern advertising in our newspapers. This is owing, no doubt, to their prompt payment, and fair rates for advertising. Their experienced judgment must be beneficial to their numerous patrons in New York, and the Eastern cities generally.

Deliciously Medicinal.—This is the universal verdict pronounced upon Plantation Bitters by all who have tried them. The well known health-promoting ingredients from which they are made, and their invaluable merits as a remedy for indigestion and all its consequent ailments, and the preventive qualities against diseases arising from climatic changes, miasmatic influences and imperfect secretions, are so widely known and so honorably endorsed that we trust no one will forego the advantages of their use.

The fame of the celebrated Plantation Bitters has no parallel in the history of Medicine. The thousands upon thousands of bottles that are made and sold daily, is but proof positive of their wonderful virtues. Thousands of Certificates can be produced showing the efficacy and certainty of the cures which they effect, and the Medical Fraternity, usually so jealous of anything which causes persons to think and doctor for themselves, are compelled to acknowledge its efficacy and wonderful virtues, and prescribe them for those who seek their advice. They are sold by all of our druggists.

Pure Blood is essential to sound health and long life. No chronic disease, sores, ulcers, skin eruptions, glandulous swellings, discharges from the ear, sore eyes, sores or cankers in the mouth, will ever appear if the blood is pure. To secure this great desideratum, take Dr. Walker's Vegetable Vinegar Bitters. It is the great Blood Purifier, and life-giving principle, increasing the power of digestion, and exciting the absorbants into healthy action, whereby all impurities of the system are carried off.

The true way to secure Beauty.—It is not to cosmetics and artificial appliances, to the skin and complexion, that we must look for personal comliness, but to pure and healthy blood. Let those annoyed with a sallow and rough skin, eyes yellow and dull, complexion disfigured with blotches, pimples, eruptive sores, etc., teeth discolored and breath offensive, cast aside all frivolous cosmetics, and resort at once to the use of Dr. Walker's Vegetable Vinegar Bitters, which will purify and enrich the blood, and give health and buoyancy to the system.

The Dentist—If you have decayed teeth, go at once to a skillful dentist, and have them put in good order; after which brush them daily with Dr. Spencer's Fragrant Sapoine, and by so doing arrest decay, preserve the teeth, and avoid the tooth-ache with all its attendant horrors. It is as pleasant as it is effectual.

Tooth Picks—The tooth pick should be composed of some elastic substance, such as quill or wood; care should be taken to avoid all hard or metalic substances, as they are apt to break the teeth or injure the enamel; picking the teeth with pins is reprehensible. In conclusion, always use Dr. Spencer's Fragrant Sapoine, as the best possible combination for the preservation of the teeth and gums.

Late news over the wires states that Ohio gives 25,000, Pennsylvania 15,000, Indiana 10,000, Nebraska 1,000—Republican majorities.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The Platform of the National Republinan Canvention held at Chicago May 20, 1868:

First—We congratulate the country on the assured success of the reconstruction policy of Congress as evinced by the adoption in the majority of the States lately in rebellion of a Constitution securing equal civil and political rights to all; and we regard it as the duty of the Government to sustain these Constitutions and prevent the people of such States from being remitted to a state of anarchy or military rule.

Second—The guarantee by Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men in the South was demanded by every consideration of public safety, gratitude and justice, and must be maintained; while the question of suffrage in all loyal States properly belongs to the people of those States.

Third—We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime, and declare that the national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the utmost good faith to our creditors at home and abroad, not only according to the letter, but according to the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted.

Fourth—It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit.

Fifth—The national debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair period to reduce the rate of interest thereon, whenever it can honestly be done.

Sixth—That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to so improve our credit that capitalists will seek to lend us money at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and must continue to pay so long as repudiation, partial or total, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.

Seventh—The Government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy. The corruptions which have been so shamefully nurtured and fostered by Andrew Johnson call loudly for radical reform.

Eighth—We profoundly deplore the untimely and tragic death of Abraham Lincoln, and regret the accession of Andrew Johnsen to the Presidential chair, who has acted treacherously to the people who elected him and the cause he was pledged to support; has usurped high legislative and judicial functions; has refused to execute laws; has used his high office to induce other officers to violate laws; has employed his executive power to render insecure the lives, property, peace, liberty and life of citizens; has abused the pardoning power; has denounced the national legislature as unconstitutional; has persistently and habitually resisted, by every means in his power every proper attempt at the reconstruction of the States lately in rebellion; has perverted the public patronage into an engine of wholesale corruption; and has been justly impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors, and pronounced guilty thereof by the votes of thirty-five Senators.

Ninth—The doctrine of Great Britain and other European Powers, that because a man is once a subject he is always so, must be resisted at every hazard by the United States as a relic of feudal times, not authorized by the law of nations and at war with our national honor and independence; and naturalized citizens are entitled to be protected in all their rights of citizenship as though they were native born; no citizen of the United States, native or naturalized, must be liable to arrest or imprisonment by any foreign Power, for acts done or words spoken in this country, and if so arrested and imprisoned, it is the duty of Government to interfere in his behalf.

Tenth—Of all who were faithful in the trials of the late war there were none more fitted for especial honor than the brave soldiers and seamen who endured the hardships of camp and cruise and imperiled their lives in the service of the country. The bounties and pensions appropriated by law for these brave defenders of the Union are obligations never to be forgotten. The widows and orphans of the gallant dead are the wards of the people, a sacred legacy bequeathed to the United States for its protecting care.

Eleventh—Foreign immigration in the past has added so much to the wealth and increased so much the resources of this nation, the assylum of all nations, that it should be fostered by a liberal and just policy.

Twelfth—This Convention declares its sympathy with all oppressed people who are struggling for their rights.

Thirteenth—That we highly commend the spirit of magnanimnity and forgiveness with which the men who have served in the rebellion and who are now frankly and honestly co-operating with us in restoring the course of the country and in reconstructing the Southern States on a basis of impartial justice and equal rights, are received back into communion with the loyal people, and that we are in favor of the removal of the disqualifications and restrictions imposed upon the late rebels in the same measure and spirit of loyalty as may be consistent with the safety of the loyal people.

Fourteenth—We recognize the great principles laid down in the Declaration of Independence as the true foundation of democratic government, and they should be made a living reality on every inch of American soil.

Democratic Nominee for City and County Attorney,
Joseph M. Nougues.

The Merchants' Protective Union
MERCANTILE REFERENCE
REGISTER.

The Merchants' Protective Union, organized to promote and protect trade, by enabling its subscribers to attain facility and safety in the granting of credits, and the recovery of claims at all points, have to announce that they will, in September, 1868, publish in one large quarto volume:

The Merchants' Protective Union "Mercantile Reference Register," containing, among other things, the Names, Nature of Business, Amount of Capital, Financial Standing, and Rating as to Credit, of over 400,000 of the principal merchants, traders, bankers, manufacturers, and public companies, in more than 30,000 of the cities, towns villages, and settlements throughout the United States, their territories, and the British Provinces of North America; and embracing the most important information attainable and necessary to enable the merchant to ascertain at a glance the Capital, Character, and Degree of Credit of such of his customers as are deemed worthy of any gradation of credit, comprising, also, a Newspaper Directory, containing the title, character, price and place of publication, with full particulars relative to each journal, being a complete guide to the press of every county in the United States.

The reports and information will be confined to those deemed worthy of some line of credit; and as the same will be based, so far as practicable, upon the written statements of the parties themselves, revised and corrected by well-known and reliable legal correspondents, whose character will prove a guarantee of the correctness of the information furnished by them, it is believed that the reports will prove more truthful and complete, and, therefore, superior to, and of much greater value, than any previously issued.

By aid of the "Mercantile Reference Register, business men will been abled to ascertain, at a glance, the capital and gradation of credit, as compared with financial worth, of nearly every merchant, manufacturer, trader, and banker, within the above-named territorial limits.

On or about the first of each month, subscribers will also receive the "Monthly Chronicle, containing, among other things, a record of such important changes in the name and condition of firms, throughout the country, as may occur subsequently to the publication of each half-yearly volume of the "Mercantile Reference Register:

Price of The Merchants' Union "Mersantile Reference Register," fifty dollars, ($50,) for which it will be forwarded to any address in the United States, transportation paid.

Holders of five $10 shares of the Capital Stock, in addition to participating in the profits, will receive one copy of the "Mercantile Reference Register" free of charge; holders of ten shares will be entitled to two copies; and no more than ten shares of the Capital Stock will be allotted to any one applicant.

All remittances, orders, or communications relative to the book should be addressed to the Merchants' Protective Union, in the American Exchange Bank Building, No. 128 Broadway, (Box 2566.) New York.

REGULATIONS.

The undersigned, to save much correspondence, would state the conditions on which deposits will be received by the California Building and Savings Bank, from the 1st day of January, 1868, to the 31st day of December, 1868:

First—Interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, clear of all city, State and Federal taxes, will be paid on all deposits which shall be 30 days in the Bank

Interest will be allowed on money from the date of its deposit, but no interest for fractional parts of a month.

No fees for pass books or entrances.

Second—Interest, if required, will be paid quarterly in San Francisco, or in any of the interior towns of the Pacific States. Also, in New York, London, Dublin, Paris and Hamburg.

Deposits may be withdrawn at any time on giving thirty days' notice, and will, if required, be forwarded in gold coin, to any place designated by the depositor. If interest be not drawn it will compound every six months.

Third—"Commercial Deposits" received to be checked for at sight, on which interest at the rate of one half per cent. per month will be allowed, in quarterly settlements, on the average daily balance.

Fourth—Children's Endowment Deposits" received under special conditions. By the present rate of Dividend on this class, such deposits double by compound interest every five years. One hundred dollars so deposited will come to nearly three thousand dollars in twenty-five years from date of deposit.

Calculated tables may be had at the office.

Deposits may be sent by Wells, Fargo & Co.'s, or other express agencies, by letter or by postoffice order, from any part of the United States or Europe. When received at the Bank a proper voucher will be returned.

The California Building and Savings Bank is a Joint Stock Company, established in 1861; has nine Directors, and assets amounting to one million and a quarter dollars, which is loaned on city real estate. By order,

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

DR. P. E. P. DEVAN, FRENCH PHYSICIAN, SURGEON and ACCOUCHEUR after 20 years of close study, has succeeded in discovering the causes and the means of curing, in a short time, Consumption, Gout, Dyspepsia, Nervous Pains, Rheumatism, Heart Disease, Congestion of the Brain, Weak Eyes, Hysteria and other Diseases peculiar to Females, Epilepsy and many other Diseases until now reputed incurable.

However incredible his discoveries may appear, the doctor has in his possession the original official documents from foreign Governments, to establish their reality beyond all doubt.

As early as 1849, Dr. Davan was well known in Paris for his special studies upon the causes of incurable diseases. At the same period, while the cholera was still raging at Paris, he was nominated a member of the Medical Commission of Relief, and his services were so highly appreciated that they gained for him a most flattering testimonial from the municipal authorities, dated August 28, 1849.

Subsequently, Dr. Davan addressed a communication to the Imperial Academy of Medicine, at Paris, in respect to his medical discoveries. This letter is cited by the Hospital Gazette, of Paris, of Nov. 9, 1865.

Dr. P. E. P. DAVAN has just returned from Europe, where he spent three years in studies that made him familiar with the latest progress in medical science. This, added to his own discoveries, gives him the ability to cure many of those patients who often die very young.

This mortality can now be very greatly reduced, for nobody can contest the truth of this fact, that Dr. Davan cures fifteen or sixteen patients out of twenty, of those who are attacked by the maladies that cause so many victims.

Why not, then, employ the new aids that are thus offered to those that need them?

Why leave so many persons to die, when there exists a means of curing them?

How great is the responsibility of those on whom patients rely for counsel and advice!

These are considerations that should be well weighed by the relatives and friends of those sufferers whose cases are so often and so wrongly called desperate.

Should there be persons desirous of purchasing one or more of these discoveries, they have only to apply to Dr. Davan.

In order to put an end to malicious accusations Dr. Davan gives notice to his patients that he holds subject to examination—

1st. His Diploma.

2d. The proofs furnished by Her Majesty the Empress of the French, on the 20th day of May, 1865, during the time that she was Regent of France; the order to His Excellency the Minister of Agriculture, Commerce and Public Works to cause to be sent to Dr. Davan a dispatch concerning his medical discoveries; that this Minister wrote to His Excellency the Minister of Foreign Affairs, and that the latter in return sent this order by a dispatch of the 28th June, 1865, signed Drouin de L'Huys, addressed to the Consul General of France at New York, with instructions to forward the same to Dr. Davan.

3d. Three letters of His Majesty the Emperor of the French.

4th. Three letters of His Excellency the Minister of Agriculture, Commerce and Public Works, concerning his (the Dr's) discoveries, and from the Imperial Academy of Medicine of Paris.

5th. The document showing the medical service rendered by Dr. Davan on account of the French Government.

6th. The documents proving that His Majesty the King of Wurtemberg, on the 24th December, 1865, appointed a Medical Commission on account of his (the Dr's) discoveries—a commission composed of the entire Medical college of Stuttgart.

7th. The proofs of the successful cures effected by the doctor in France, Germany, England at New York and at San Francisco.

MERCHANT'S GARGLING OIL FOR MAN OR BEAST.

Every Scientific medical man knows that the combined influence of several ingredients in certain fixed proportions, subserves an effect that cannot be attained by the same ingredients seperate, or in different combinations. So with this compound. The chemical affinities which are brought to co operate in the union of the various ingredients constituting the Liniment, render it an article of universal potency as a cure for Rheumatism, Chilblains, Whitlows, Caked Breasts Sore Nipples, Cramps Boils, Bites of Animals, Weakness of the Joints Contraction of the Muscles, Burns and Scalds, Frost Bites, Painful Nervous Affections, Chapped Hands, Lame Backs, Pain in the Side Sachings, Tumors, Toothache, Old Sores, Hemorrhoids or Piles, Flesh Wounds, Galls of all kinds, Sprains, Bruises, Cracked Heels, Ring Bone, Poll Evil, Windgalls, Callous Spavins, Sweeny, Fistula, Saltast, External Poisons, Scratches or Grease, Springhalt, Sand Cracks, Lameness, sprains, Foundered Feet, Mange, Garget in Cows, cracked Teats, Foot Rot in sheep, and many other diseases incident to Man and Beast.

Merchant's Gargling Oil

Is the only Patent Remedy ever known which has lived through and triumphed over all opposition. The reason is plain: It has merit beyond all others in its way, and what is said of it by the public and persons disinterested fully proves that no Liniment ever prepared has so high a reputation wherever it has been used. As a family embrocation, as well as for horses and cattle it stands unrivaled.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH.
Every Man his own Physician.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS,
.....AND.....
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Disorders of the Stomach, Liver, and Bowels.

The stomach is the great centre which influences the health or disease of the system—Abused or debilitated by excess—indigestion, offensive breath and physical prostration are the natural consequences. Allied to the brain, it is the source of headaches, mental depression, nervous complaints, and unrefreshing sleep. The Liver becomes affected and generates bilious disorders, pains in the side, etc. The Bowels sympathize by Costiveness, Diarrhœa and Dysentry. The principal action of these Pills is on the stomach, and the liver, lungs, bowels and kidneys participate in their recuperative and regenerative operation.

Erysipelas and Salt Rheum,

Are two of the most common and virulent disorders prevalent on this continent, to these the Ointment is especially antagonistic, its "modus operandi" is first to eradicate the venom and then complete the cure.

Bad Legs, Old Sores, and Ulcers.

Cases of many years' standing, that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful unguent.

Erruptions on the Skin.

Arising from a bad state of the blood or chronic diseases, are eradicated, and a clear and transparent surface regained by the restorative action of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetic and other toilet appliances in its power to dispel rashness and other disfigurements of the face.

Female Complaints.

Whether in the young or old, married or single, at the dawn of Womanhood, or the turn of life, these tonic medicines display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible in the health of the patient. Being a purely vegetable preparation, they are a safe and reliable remedy for all classes of Females in every condition of health and station of life.

Piles and Fistula.

Every form and feature of these prevalent and stubborn disorders is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emolient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions, Boils, Burns, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Fistula, Gout, Lumbago, Mercurial Eruptions, Stiff Joints, Piles, Rheumatism, Ringworm, Salt Rheum, Scalds, Skin Diseases, Swelled Glands, Sore Legs, Sore Breasts, Sore Heads, Sore Throats, Sores of all kinds, Sprains, Tetter, Ulcers, Venereal Sores, Wounds of all kinds,

CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON," are discernable as a Water mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

 Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the civilized world.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each pot and box.

"Will the Fluid Extracts go out of use owing to the high price, or can we have some authoritative modification of the formulas by which we can make them at a more reasonable cost?"

"If the latter, shall the change be in the quality of the menstruum, or in the manner of applying it, so as to reduce the quantity requisite? Can there be a convocation of the Committee of Revision to authorize some new method or modification of the present recipies?"

With regard to the contemplated change in the quantity, or in the menstrumm itself, in the preparation of fluid extracts, I would take occasion to say that in medicine the health of the patient is the great object to be gained,

The cost of material is something, but when put into the scale with human health, and often human life, it is hardly worthy of consideration at all. Buchu (Helmbold's) will continue to be made as formerly, and if it cannot be maintained at present prices, they will have to be advanced to meet the advance in the price of material. To such as desire quantity istead of quality, we would say that water is a cheap commodity, and may be readily added by the person using the medicine, if he desires to do so.

A Case of Twenty Years' Standing.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., February 25, 1865.

DEAR SIR—I have been a sufferer for upward of twenty years, with gravel, bladder, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medicinal preparations, and been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted with my family physician in regard to using your extract Buchu.

B

I did this because I used all kinds of advertised remedies, and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no remedies hereafter unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use your remedy. As you advertized that it was composed of Buchu, cubebs and juniper berries, it occurred to me and my physician as an excellent combination, and with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting again with the druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced its use about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room.

O

From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and after using it three weeks was able to walk out. I felt much leke writing you a full statement of my case at the time, but thought my improvement might only be temporary, and, therefore, conc uded to defer and see if it would effect a perfect cure, knowing then it would be of greater value to you and more satisfactory to me.

I AM NOW ABLE TO REPORT THAT A CURE EFFECTED AFTER USING THE REMEDY FOR FIVE MONTHS

I HAVE NOT USED ENY NOW FOR THREE MONTHS, AND FEEL AS WELL IN ALL RESPECTS AS I EVER DID.

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, a nice tonic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it whenever occasion may require its use in such affections.

VINEGAR BITTERS,

A New and Great Discovery!

A certain cure for all Diseases the Human Family is subject to, if taken in time.

A Purely Vegetable Preparation,
Manufactured from the Native Herbs of California.

No Family should be without it.

One hundred Dollars will be given for an incurable case, where the Lungs are not too far gone, or the bones are not destroyed by minerals. Let no one despair, for it has cured hundreds after their physicians had given them up.

It contains no Mercury, Mineral, or other deleterious Drugs, but is made from the Herbs and Roots which were used by the Natives and Jesuits on the Pacific Coast an hundred years ago and as is well known by every medical man, their skillful combination is far more effectual than one drug alone, and this combination has been adjusted by long and laborious experiment, so as to afford the best result that is possible for medical intelligence and skill to produce.

I Challenge the World to Produce a Superior Remedy

For those Diseases of Long Standing

Such as Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Paralysis, Chronic Diarhœa, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Fever and ague, Jaundice, Seminal weakness, Rheumatism, Piles, Scrofula, Sore Eyes, Etc., Etc.,

For no person can take these Bitters according to directions, with proper nursing, and remain long unwell.

DR. WALKER'S
IS THE GREAT
Blood Purifier and Life-giving Principal.

Increasing the Powers of Digestion, Exciting the Absorbents into Healthy Action, by which all impurities of the System are carried off; by causing a solution of the diseased deposits, and by Purifying the blood it

RENOVATES THE SYSTEM.

"the life of all flesh is the blood thereof," and no life or flesh can be healthy while its blood is diseased. The whole Visceral System is engaged in the manufacture of blood, and derangement in any one of its organs disorders this pabulum of life. The assimilative organism that produces it must be stimulated into healthy action, and the whole system will follow. Pure Blood produces healthy men and women, and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death is the result. Do not delay when the means are so near at hand, and within the reach of all.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Propulsus Uteri, Whites, Monthly Irregularities, Suppression, Incontinence of Urine etc, Whether in the Young or Old, Married or Single, at the dawn of Womanhood or the turn of life, these Tonic "Bitters" display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible in the health of the patient. Being a purely Vegetable Preparation, it is a safe and reliable remedy for all classes of Females, in every condition of health and station of life. It is an infallible remedy for those many serious complaints which have their origin in Derangement of the Liver, such as Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Indigestion, Costiveness, Intermittant and Remittant Fevers, Colic, and Dysentery, Colds, Nervous and Sick Headache, etc.,

The usual concomitants of a diseased Liver are: Want of Appetite, Listlessness, General Weakness, Depression of Spirits, Pains in the Back and Kidneys, Flatulence, Sallow Complexion, Blotches, Pimples, etc. No other remedy has ever been discovered which is nearly so safe, speedy, or effectual as these Bitters.

It is a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving congestion or inflammation of the Liver. In this respect it has no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism these Bitters have been most successful. Rheumatism and Gout generally effect the joints, but other more vulnerable points are also subject to their attacks. They are caused by vitiated blood, which is generally caused by derangement of the digestive organs.

DR WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS is a perfect Renovator of the System, by carrying off every particle of poisonous matter wherein the old are made young, and the pale and sallow will become fresh and vigorous.

The Merchants' Protective Union
MERCANTILE REFERENCE REGISTER.

The Merchants' Protective Union, organized to promote and protect trade, by enabling its subscribers to attain facility and safety in the granting of credits, and the recovery of claims at all points, have to announce that they will, in September, 1868, publish in one large quarto volume:

The Merchahts' Protective Union "Mercantile Reference Register," containing, among other things, the Names, Nature of Business, Amount of Capital, Financial Standing, and Rating as to Credit, of over 400,000 of the principal merchants, traders, bankers, manufacturers, and public companies, in more than 30,000 of the cities, towns villages, and settlements throughout the United States, their territories, and the British Provinces of North America; and embracing the most important information attainable and necessary to enable the merchant to ascertain at a glance the Capital, Character, and Degree of Credit of such of his customers as are deemed worthy of any gradation of credit, comprising, also, a Newspaper Directory, containing the title, character, price and place of publication, with full particulars relative to each journal, being a complete guide to the press of every county in the United States.

The reports and information will be confined to those deemed worthy of some line of credit; and as the same will be based, so far as practicable, upon the written statements of the parties themselves, revised and corrected by well-known and reliable legal correspondents, whose character will prove a guarantee of the correctness of the information furnished by them, it is believed that the reports will prove more truthful and complete, and, therefore, superior to, and of much greater value, than any previously issued.

By aid of the "Mercantile Reference Register, business men will been abled to ascertain, at a glance, the capital and gradation of credit, as compared with financial worth, of nearly every merchant, manufacturer, trader, and banker, within the above-named territorial limits.

On or about the first of each month, subscribers will also receive the "Monthly Chronicle, containing, among other things, a record of such important changes in the name and condition of firms, throughout the country, as may occur subsequently to the publication of each half-yearly volume of the "Mercantile Reference Register:

Price of The Merchants' Union "Mersantile Reference Register," fifty dollars, ($50,) for which it will be forwarded to any address in the United States, transportation paid.

Holders of five $10 shares of the Capital Stock, in addition to participating in the profits, will receive one copy of the "Mercantile Reference Register" free of charge; holders of ten shares will be entitled to two copies; and no more than ten shares of the Capital Stock will be allotted to any one applicant.

All remittances, orders, or communications relative to the book should be addressed to the Merchants' Protective Union, in the American Exchange Bank Building, No. 128 Broadway, (Box 2566) New York.

REGULATIONS.

The undersigned, to save much correspondence, would state the conditions on which deposits will be received by the California Building and Savings Bank, from the 1st day of January, 1868, to the 31st day of December, 1868:

First—Interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, clear of all city, State and Federal taxes, will be paid on all deposits which shall be 30 days in the Bank

Interest will be allowed on money from the date of its deposit, but no interest for fractional parts of a month.

No fees for pass books or entrances.

Second—Interest, if required, will be paid quarterly in San Francisco, or in any of the interior towns of the Pacific States. Also, in New York, London, Dublin. Paris and Hamburg.

Deposits may be withdrawn at any time on giving thirty days' notice, and will, if required, be forwarded in gold coin, to any place designated by the depositor. If interest be not drawn it will compound every six months.

Third—"Commercial Deposits" received to be checked for at sight, on which interest at the rate of one half per cent, per month will be allowed, in quarterly settlements, on the average daily balance.

Fourth—Children's Endowment Deposits" received under special conditions. By the present rate of Dividend on this class, such deposits double by compound interest every five years. One hundred dollars so deposited will come to nearly three thousand dollars in twenty-five years from date of deposit.

Calculated tables may be had at the office.

Deposits may be sent by Wells, Fargo & Co.'s, or other express agencies, by letter or by postoffice order, from any part of the United States or Europe. When received at the Bank a proper voucher will be returned.

The California Building and Savings Bank is a Joint Stock Company, established in 1861; has nine Directors, and assets amounting to one million and a quarter dollars, which is loaned on city real estate. By order.

SOLANO WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.

The above nemed springs are now open for the reception of the public, and the Proprietor in making the announcement takes pleasure in being able to state that no place of summer resort presents better accommodations or more facilities for enjoyment.

These springs are but three miles from Vallejo, and five miles from Benicia, and can be reached by way of either place in two and a half hours from San Francisco, at a cost of only $2 50.

The expences of guests at the Hotel are much lower than at similar places, and at the same time the accommodations are equal to the best.

The medicinal qualities of the waters are pronounced by the best medical authority to be unsurpassed in their benefit to invalids as a restorer of health and vigor,

The bathing accommodations are unlimited, and guests have the benefit of a large orchard and vinyard, and spacious grounds covering 100 acres. The scenery is beautiful, and climate delightful.

Families wishing to spend a week or two in the country, can find no place so near at home, or that can be reached at so small an expense in so short a time, as the Solano White Sulphur Springs.

Omnibuses are in waiting at Vallejo on the arrival of the Napa boat, which leaves San Francisco at 9 A. M., to convey passengers to the Springs.

The springs can also be reached by way of Suisan, Napa and Benicia,

THE QUESTION IS NO LONGER shall I insure my Life? but, Where is it to my Advantage to Insure?

REASONS FOR INSURING IN THE UNION MUTUAL

1—Its Safety and Stability, acquired in its twenty years' experience.

2—Its Assets, which amount to nearly Four Millions of Dollars—being more than One Million Dollars in excess of its liabilities, for the reinsurance of all its outstanding risks.

3—The Facilities presented in its accommodating system of payments of premiums.

4—The Large Number, diversified conditions and occupations, various ages and localities, of the lives insured—giving the largest requisite scope for the operation, and the amplest guarantee for the benefits of the Laws of Average Mortality

5—The Equitable Division of all Surplus of Premiums and Interest; annually apportioning to each Policy in the ratio of its contribution thereto.

6—That its Policies are all non-forfeitable.

Private MEDICAL AID.

QUICK CURES
.....AND.....
MODERATE CHARGES.

DOCTOR DOHERTY'S
Private Medical and Surgical Institute.
SACRAMENTO STREET,
Below Montgomery,
(Opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office.) Private entrance on Leidesdorff st., San Francisco.

Established Expressly to afford the Afflicted a safe and scientific Medical Aid, in the treatment and cure of all Private and Chronic Diseases, cases of secrecy and all sexual disorders.

To the Afflicted.

DR. W. K. DOHERTY returns his sincere thanks to his numerous patients for their patronage, and would take this opportunity to remind them that he continues to consult at his Institute for the cure of chronic diseases of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Digestive and Genito-Urinary Organs, and all Private Diseases, viz: Syphillis in all its forms and stages, Seminal Weakness, and all the horrid consequences of Self-abuse; Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, Nocturnal and Diurnal Emissions, Sexual Debility, Diseases of the Back and Loins, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, etc., etc., and in hopes that his long experience and successful practice will continue to insure him a share of public patronage. By the practice of many years in Europe and the United States, he is enabled to apply the most effective and successful remedies against diseases of all kinds. He uses no mercury, charges moderate, treats his patients in a correct and honorable way, and has references of unquestionable veracity from men of known respectability and high standing in society. All parties consulting him by letter or otherwise, will receive the best and gentlest treatment and implicit secrecy.

DR. DOHERTY would call attention to the following certificates, from two of his patients who, having fully recovered their health, desire to make known their remedial agent. It will be seen their statements are fully authenticated by a notary public. The welfare of society imperiously demands their publicity, and they are given more to warn the unwary than to boast the praises of a physician, of whom hundreds of like cases can be cited, during a practice of more than fifteen years.

A CASE OF GLEET AND STRICTURE.

DR. DOHERTY—Dear Sir: I find my health fully restored that, in common gratitude, I believe I should make you some written acknowledgment for your valuable services—particularly so as your fee was small for the work performed.

I arrived in this city from the East about one year ago, and was then suffering from a bad case of Gleet, complicated with Stricture. The latter was so bad that I feared an entire stoppage of urine. Being a stranger in this city, and believing that those Doctors who gave such positive assurances of success were necessarily the best, I placed myself in their charge, and continued under their treatment until I had lost nearly all hope and a considerable sum of money.

I wish to say now that you are the sixth Doctor I have employed, and the only one that has ever done me any service. My Gleet is entirely cured, the Stricture is all removed, and my general health is better than it has been for years.

In conclusion, I would say to the many unfortunates who require medical advice, if you have any doubt as to whom you should employ, ask for DOHERTY for my address, and call and see me. (I keep store in this city.) My experience may save you many dollars.

I would also add, that in the early stage of my disease, I used a large amount of the preparations advertised as an infallible cure for Gonorrhœa, Gleet, etc., but never derived any benefit from them.

I am, Doctor, very truly, yours, L—— H——

SEMINAL WEAKNESS—A SWORN TO CERTIFICATE OF MOST REMARKABLE CURE OF SPERMATORRHŒA.

A desire to benefit suffering humanity, and a feeling of gratitude to DR. W. K. DOHERTY alone induces me to make this statement. For many years I had been afflicted with that fearful disease known as "Spermatorrhœa," or Seminal Weakness, the result of self-abuse, but till 1861 experienced but little trouble or inconvenience in that year, however, I had Seminal Weakness to a fearful extent, which was soon followed by the most alarming symptons, as weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of vision, nervousness and general debility. My mind, too, was affected to such an extent as to seriously impair my memory; my ideas were confused and spirits depressed. I was averse to society, had evil forebodings and self-distrust, and was entirely unfitted for any of the duties of life. From 1855 to the Summer of 1863, I employed the very best medical talent I could find and spent several hundred dollars, but in no instance obtained more than temporary relief. I had about concluded there was no relief for me in this world, but reading Dr. Doherty's advertisement, I thought I should call and see him. He charged nothing for consultation. I had an interview with the Doctor at his office, 3 Sacramento street, and his fee for treatment was so reasonable, I determined to try him, though I did not expect much benefit from his treatment. On the 5th of December last, I placed myself under his care; in one week I found myself very much improved, and now, after five weeks treatment, I feel myself thoroughly cured of all my troubles, and in the enjoyment of the best health. Hoping that my experience may be of benefit to others similarly afflicted, I subscribe myself,

JAMES JOHNSTON.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 15 day of January, A. D. 1864.

To Females.

When a female is in trouble, or afflicted with disease, as weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, irritability, nervousness, extreme urinary difficulties, derangement of digestive functions, general debility, vaginitis, and diseases of the womb, hysteria, sterility, and all other diseases peculiar to females, she should go or write at once to the celebrated female doctor, W. K. Doherty, at his Medical Institute, and consult him about her troubles and disease. Irregularities, suppressions, etc, will receive the Doctor's most particular attention. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately and save yourself from painful sufferings and premature death. All married Ladies, whose delicate health or other circumstances prevents an increase to their families, should write or call at Dr. W. K. Doherty's Medical Institute, and they will receive every possible relief and help. The doctor's offices, consisting of a suit of six rooms, are so arranged that he can be consulted without fear of observation.

To Correspondents.

Patients (male or female) residing in any part of the State, however distant, who may desire the opinion and advice of Dr. Doherty in their respective cases, and who think proper to submit a written statement of such, in preference to holding a personal interview, are respectfully assured that their communications will be held most sacred and confidential.

If the case be fully and candidly described personal communications will be unnecessary as instructions for diet, regimen, and the general treatment of the case itself, (including the remedies) will be forwarded without delay, and in such a manner as to convey no idea of the purport of the letter or parcel so transmitted. Consultation (at the office or by letter,) FREE. Permanent cures guaranteed or no pay. Address,

WM. K. DOHERTY, M. D.,
